The Return of Progressives.

Mr. Taft, in a speech here last night which he characterized as the first political talk he had made on his present tour, defined what the "return must mean" of dissen ng Republicans to their party. "They cannot involve the eld party," he said, "in promotion of those planks of the so-called Progressive party, adopted in 1912, which never were and never will be supported by the national Republican party."

The former president's speech was made in the lobby of a hotel shortly after his arrival here from San Francisco, in response to an address of welcome by the Young Men's Republican ciub of this city.

"The placing of the Democratic party in power," he said, "and the adoption of policies to which the majority of voters are opposed, has, I think, startled many of the dissenting.

Upkeep of Kansas Building at Frisco Is Expensive.

The Last Itemized Bill Submitted Calls for $389.

Some of the bills for the upkeep of the Kansas building at Panama-Pa-cific exposition, San Francisco, have occasioned strong and rather harsh language by members of the Kansas commission. The first of the month miscellaneous claims and accounts for the Care of the Kansas building at miscellaneous claims and accounts for the care of the Kansas building at Frisco came to E. F. Benson, state bank commissioner and member of the commission. These bills amounted to $389 and Benson is inclined to think the accounts a bit extravagant—ever for an exposition.

An inspection of the bills indicates to Benson that someone—more aften a small regiment of men—constantly change the topography of the lawn surrounding the Kansas building. When someone is not removing the rubbish, another detail of men seems to be kept busy filling in a hole or setting a rose bush. Benson doesn't know what they do. He just knows that the bills keep coming in and the bills for the upkeep of that lawn would keep the grass cut on an entire townsite for a year.

Stocks of wheat in Chicago elevators decreased 301,000 bushels last week and now amount to 478,000 bushels; corn, 448,000 bushels, increase 120,000 bushels; oats, 2,139,000 bushels, increase, 159,000 bushels. A year ago stocks were 4,442,000 bushels of wheat, 1,321,000 bushels of corn and 10,211,000 bushels of oats.

A foreign crop report included the following: "France—Wheat harvesting and threshing is progressing, though weather is still unsettied. Returns confirm a reduced quality. Native wheat is being sparingly offered. Oats were badly laid by recent rains and there is a urgent demand for foreign oats for immediate deflivesy. Italy—Supplies of wheat are light and mills are not operating, but the government has agreed to furnish wheat until the new crop is available. Purchases of foreign wheat are expected to continue, as native yields are disappointing and quality only fair. Russia—Weather has turned more favorable, but movement of wheat is light. There can be no important business until the question of reserving warehouse room to private individuals is solved. Officials own most of the grain and are storing heavily. Argentina—Rain has been light, but fairly well distributed. General heavy rains is urgently wanted. Wheat prospects on the whole are distinctly unfavorable.
